

ACCESS TO INFORMATION MANUAL

OF

ROCHE DIAGNOSTICS (PTY) LTD

Prepared in accordance with Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 ("PAIA") and the Protection of Personal Information
Act 4 of 2013 ("PoPIA")

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. On 9 March 2001, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No.2 of 2000 ("PAIA" or "the Act") became operative, giving effect to the constitutional right to access information as contained in Section 32(2) of the Bill of Rights. PAIA seeks to promote the values of transparency and accountability.
- 1.2. PAIA establishes certain statutory rights of Requesters to any Records of a private body if:
- 1.3. That Records is required for the exercise of any of his or her legal rights;
- 1.4. That Requester complies with all the procedural requirements; and
- 1.5. Access is not refused in terms of any ground referred to in the PAIA.
- 1.6. Private bodies are required to compile a manual to assist Requesters who wish to request access to Records. The Act further provides listed details that must be contained in the manual. Section 23 of The Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 ("PoPIA") provides a Data Subject the right to access Personal Data held by a Responsible Party.

2. PURPOSE, OBJECTIVE AND SCOPE OF THE MANUAL

- 2.1. This document serves as Roche Diagnostics (Pty) Ltd ("Roche") Promotion of Access to Information Manual ("Manual") and provides reference on how to access the Records held by Roche in terms of PAIA as well as objecting to the Processing of your Personal Data, and request to correct, delete or destroy your Personal Data in terms of PoPIA.
- 2.2. The objectives of this Manual include:
 - 2.2.1. Providing for the availability of the Manual and the details of the Information Officer;
 - 2.2.2. To identify the main categories of Records held by Roche;
 - 2.2.3. To provide for information available in terms of PAIA and PoPIA;
 - 2.2.4. To provide the procedure applicable to requesting access to Records including the method of requesting access, the refusal of requests for Records and prescribed access fees as provided for in PAIA; and
 - 2.2.5. To provide Data Subjects the right to access their Personal Data , object to its Processing and to request to rectify, delete or destroy their Personal Data held by Roche as per Section 5 of PoPIA.

3. ABOUT ROCHE

- 3.1. Roche has a proud tradition of innovation in healthcare around the globe. We are committed to making a real difference in people's lives by providing products and services for the diagnosis of diseases. One of our objectives is to develop new diagnostic tools to support healthcare professionals and patients, in their efforts to manage diseases and healthcare costs.
- 3.2. Our leadership in innovation is evident in our Early Infant Diagnosis of HIV program built on our globally renowned Polymerase Chain Reaction ("PCR") technology. The introduction of a Dried Blood Spot ("DBS") sampling option for this program has had a direct benefit for all stakeholders in the healthcare industry namely, patients, clinicians, administrators and program funders.
- 3.3. Roche's adoption of innovation within these programs is not limited to the development of in-vitro diagnostic assays for high burden diseases such as Human Immunodeficiency Virus ("HIV"), Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome ("AIDS") and Tuberculosis ("TB"), but also encompasses other aspects of process workflow in an effort to create sustainable solutions for the challenges posed within resource-limited regions. This is achieved through the AmpliCare Initiative, which was our proactive response to the need to expand diagnostics to these settings.

- 3.4. We are committed to capacity building initiatives through ongoing certified training of laboratory scientists at the Roche PCR Academy in Johannesburg, to ensure highest results, quality and reliability. This training includes education of Health Care Professionals on molecular theory and techniques enabling them to deliver better patient management outcomes.
- 3.5. Through Roche's research and development initiatives, we also apply our expertise to develop novel solutions, precise and robust diagnostic tests, automated systems and integrated solutions in the fields of Clinical Chemistry, Haematology, Coagulation and Immunodiagnostics.
- 3.6. We believe that through continued effort and investment in the latest innovations in diagnostics, Roche can make a positive, sustainable and cost-effective contribution to developing world healthcare.
- 3.7. Roche is the world leader in in-vitro diagnostics. Roche offers a uniquely broad product portfolio and supplies a wide array of innovative testing products and services to researchers, physicians, patients, hospitals and laboratories in the fields of diabetes care and anticoagulation therapy, molecular biology, clinical chemistry, immunology and applied science.

4. AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

10. ACCESS REQUESTS

10.1. A person may request access to their information as well request for the deletion and destruction of their information by completing the forms attached as Annexure 1 (“Request for Access to Record”) and Annexure 2 (“Fees in Respect of Private Bodies”) and submitting them via email to midrand.information-office@roche.com

10.2. ACCESS REQUEST PROCEDURE (SECTION 51(1) (b) (IV) of PAIA)

10.2.1. Requests for access to Records held by Roche must be made on the request forms attached as Annexure 1 (“Access Request Form”) and all supporting documents as set out below, as well as the applicable fee, must be submitted to Roche.

10.2.2. Please be guided by the information below on how to complete an Access Request Form and how to submit this form to Roche for consideration.

10.2.3. COMPLETION OF ACCESS REQUEST FORM

All Requesters should take note of the following when completing the Access Request Form:

- The Access Request Form, attached as Annexure 1 (“Access Request Form”) hereto, must be completed.
- Proof of identity is required to authenticate the identity of the Requester – in addition to the Access Request Form; Requesters will be required to supply a certified copy of their green bar-coded identification document, smart card ID, drivers’ licence or a valid passport document.
- Answers to questions must be typed or print in BLOCK LETTERS.
- If a question does not apply, state “N/A” in response to that question.
- If there is nothing to disclose in reply to a particular question state “NIL” in response to that question.
- If there is insufficient space on the printed form, additional information may be provided on a separate document attached to the Access Request Form as an annexure and each document should indicate which question it is in reference to.
- .The Requester must provide on the Access Request Form in the applicable space the name of the Records the Requester wants to access or a description of the Records. Please note that Roche is only required (subject to the grounds of refusal provided in PoPIA and PAIA) to provide access to Records that exist at the time of the request and that are in its possession or under its control.
- The Requester must indicate in the Access Request Form, the right the Requester wants to protect or exercise and for which the Requester requires the Records.
- The Requestor must reference the legislative right the request is based on.

Please note that the successful completion and submission of an Access Request Form does not automatically allow the Requester access to the requested Records. An application for access to a Record is subject to certain limitations. If the information contained in the requested Records falls within a certain protected category specified in Part 3 Chapter 4 of PAIA, access to such Record may be declined. If it is reasonably suspected that the Requester has obtained access to Records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such Requester.

10.2.4. SUBMISSION OF ACCESS REQUEST FORM

- The completed Access Request Form together with a certified copy of the Requester's identity document must be submitted either via conventional mail (i.e. post or courier), e-mail and must be addressed to the Information Officer.
- For the avoidance of doubt, the Access Request Form must be submitted to Roche at one of the following applicable addresses:
 - if submitted by post, to the following physical address: Building E, Hertford Office Park, 90 Bekker Road, Vorna Valley, Midrand; or
 - if submitted by email, to the following email: midrand.informationoffice@roche.com.

An initial request fee of R50.00 (Fifty Rand) (excluding VAT) is payable on submission of the request. This fee is not applicable to Personal Requesters. A Personal Requester is any person seeking access to Records that contain their Personal Data . The Prescribed Access Fees are set out in Annexure 2 ("Fees in Respect of Private Bodies") and include a calculation of the time it takes to search and prepare the Records for disclosure.

10.2.5. PAYMENT OF FEES

- Payment details can be obtained from the Information Officer indicated above and can be made either via a direct deposit (no credit card payments are accepted). Proof of payment must be supplied to Roche together with the applicable Access Request Form. The access fee must be paid prior to access being given to the requested Records. If the request for access is successful, an access fee may be required for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the Records(s) and will be calculated based on the Prescribed Fees as set out in Annexure 2 ("Fees in Respect of Private Bodies") hereto.

10.2.6. NOTIFICATION

- The Information Officer will, within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the Access Request Form, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect. This 30 (thirty) day period may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 (thirty) days, if the request is for a large volume of Records, or the request requires a search for Records held at other offices of Roche and the Records cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period. The Requester will be notified in writing including reasons explaining the necessity of the extension should an extension be sought.

10.3. GROUND FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

10.3.1. PAIA sets out a number of grounds on which the Information Officer may, or must, refuse the Requester's request to access a Record. The main grounds on which the Information Officer may or must refuse a request for access to Records are as follows, where the:

- the disclosure of the Records would involve the unreasonable the unreasonable disclosure of Personal Data about a third party, including a deceased individual;
- Records contains commercial information of Roche or a third party. This refers to instances where the Records contain:
 - Trade secrets;
 - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information of a third party, the disclosure of which would likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that party; and/or
 - Information supplied in confidence by a third party, the disclosure of which could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;

- the disclosure of the requested Records would constitute an action for breach, or a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement;
- the disclosure of Records could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual, or would be likely to prejudice the security of a building, means of transport or any other property; and
- the Records are privileged from production in legal proceedings.

10.3.2. Accordingly, unless where the disclosure is in the public interest, the Information Officer may or must refuse your request to access a Record if any of the grounds of refusal set out above are applicable to its disclosure.

10.3.3. Where the request relates to the Records of a third party, the third party must be informed of such request within 21 (twenty-one) days of the request being received. The third party will thereafter have 21 (twenty-one) days, after being informed about the request, to make written or oral representations to the Information Officer as to why access to the Records must be refused or to provide written Consent for the disclosure.

10.4. APPEAL AGAINST REFUSAL TO GRANT ACCESS

10.4.1. If a Requester is aggrieved by the refusal of the Information Officer to grant a request for Records, the Requester may, upon notification of the Information Officer's decision (or upon his or her deemed refusal in terms of Section 58 of PAIA), apply to court for appropriate relief within the prescribed timeframes as prescribed by the Act.

10.4.2. In any event, any person has the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator and request the contact details of the Information Regulator from the Information Officer where the person is of the view that this Manual or any provision of this Manual is in contravention of South African legislation.

11. INFORMATION AVAILABLE IN TERMS OF THE ("PoPIA")

11.1. In terms of PoPIA, the purpose of Processing Personal Data must be contained in this Manual. The purpose of Processing Personal Data is variable and depends on various factors, such as the nature of the Personal Data , from whom it is collected and the reason it has been collected. Roche generally processes Personal Data in the form of hard copy and electronic systems for purposes of providing Customers with solutions and services for use of Roche products.

11.2. Kindly consult the Roche Privacy Policy and Notice to obtain further information on the collecting and processing of Personal Data by Roche on: roche.co.za

- 11.5. The planned cross border flows of Personal re include:
- 11.5.1. Customer/Patient Data;
 - 11.5.2. Healthcare Professional Data; and
 - 11.5.3. Employee Data;
- 11.6. Roche has put in place a number of security measures to protect your Personal Data from unauthorized access, improper use, disclosure, loss or destruction. To ensure the confidentiality of your information, Roche also uses industry standard firewalls and password protection. It is, however, your personal responsibility to ensure that the computer you are using is adequately secured and protected against malicious software, such as trojans, computer viruses and worm programs. You should be aware of the fact that without adequate security measures (e.g. secure web browser configuration, up-to-date antivirus software, personal firewall software, no usage of software from dubious sources) there is a risk that the data and passwords you use to protect access to your data, could be disclosed to unauthorized third parties.
- 11.7. Section 23 of PoPIA, as set out below, allows a Data Subject to have access to their information:
1. “A Data Subject, having provided adequate proof of identity, has the right to—
 - a. request a responsible party to confirm, free of charge, whether or not the responsible party holds Personal Information about the Data Subject; and
 - b. request from a responsible party the Records or a description of the Personal Information about the Data Subject held by the responsible party, including information about the identity of all third parties, or categories of third parties, who have, or have had, access to the information—
 - i. within a reasonable time;
 - ii. at a prescribed fee, if any;
 - iii. in a reasonable manner and format; and
 - iv. in a form that is generally understandable.
 2. If, in response to a request in terms of subsection (1), Personal Information is communicated to a Data Subject, the Data Subject must be advised of the right in terms of Section 24 to request the correction of information.
 3. If a Data Subject is required by a responsible party to pay a fee for services provided to the Data Subject in terms of subsection (1) (b) to enable the responsible party to respond to a request, the responsible party—must give the applicant a written estimate of the fee before providing the services; and may require the applicant to pay a deposit for all or part of the fee.
 4. A responsible party may or must refuse, as the case may be, to disclose any information requested in terms of subsection (1) to which the grounds for refusal of access to Records set out in the applicable

Sections of Chapter 4 of Part 2 and Chapter 4 of Part 3 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act apply.

5. The provisions of Sections 30 and 61 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act are applicable in respect of access to health or other Records.
6. If a request for access to Personal Information is made to a responsible party and part of that information may or must be refused in terms of subsection (4)(a), every other part must be disclosed.”
- 11.8. Section 24 of PoPIA provides for correction of Personal Information as follows:
 1. “A Data Subject may, in the prescribed manner, request a responsible party to—
 - a. correct or delete Personal Information about the Data Subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or
 - b. destroy or delete a record of Personal Information about the Data Subject that the responsible party is no longer authorised to retain in terms of Section 14.”
 2. The Data Subject should complete the attached form, Annexure 3 (“Form D”) and provide the relevant requested information.
- 11.9. A Data Subject who wishes to give effect to one of the below requests, should complete Form D (“Requests in relation to your rights in terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act No 4 of 2013”) attached hereto as Annexure 3 and provide all relevant requested information in relation thereto:
